Accommodation:

Accommodation as a separate service

There are various options that will suit everyone – you will be able to find what you prefer!

Private student residences

Student residences are large dormitories with private rooms. Some rooms have their own bathroom and kitchen.

Apartment rent

Many students choose this option, as they themselves can choose the most necessary conditions, distance, furniture, number of residents, etc.

Host Family

The homestay option is the most popular choice among international students. Students choose this type of accommodation for the sake of home comfort, family atmosphere, which allows them to practice English and learn about the British lifestyle in general. This is ideal for international students who are looking for comfortable, safe living for a short period of time, until they find something more permanent. However, at the request of the student and the host country, the student may remain for a longer period.

In order to find a suitable accommodation, you need to contact the Kyrgyz Concept consultants. Your consultant will help you to choose the accommodation option that will meet your
